One Last Thank You

As we ring in the New Year I would like to take the opportunity to pass out a well deserved thank you that did not go out in the December newsletter. Bob Dickerson did an outstanding job guiding the Fayetteville Area Shag Association through the 2009 year. As is often the case, those that are working the hardest to keep the show going on do not get the recognition they most assuredly deserve. Many trying situations presented themselves this year. The vast amount of experience and expertise that Bob has amassed as an officer in the United States Navy and as a top executive in the civilian sector served him well as our president. I know from personal experience that the job of leading our group can be a full time task. I also know from watching Bob just how seriously he took his duty. I could not think of a person that was better suited for that duty. His knowledge, his personality, and demeanor set the mark that all other officers of our group should strive to match. Bob, speaking for myself and the entire membership of FASA, thank you for a job well done.
