From the President

I can't believe we're heading into June already. The year has certainly gone by fast. For a while there I thought time stood still. But then I started to enjoy all the things that give a club its' own personality. The meetings have really been a learning experience. After a year of those you think you've finally got the idea of how to run a club. But then you move on and the next person gets his/her chance at it. How many month's did I say were left? Sorry, thinking again. People have really stepped up when it comes to planning our parties. We seem to have more fun than the last party and the food has been great. Alvia has certainly put together an outstanding group of DJ's and has gotten together some of the best party planners. The rest of the year should be so much fun. If you haven't been coming out you've really been missing. Our May party was the reverse raffle and money was being given out all night. I even won a little. The Grand prize was split between Steve Dawson, Joyce Ramos, Barbara Peele, and Dennis Johnson. A.C. Williams won the Half and Half. It really pays to be a member of FASA!! Melba Hampton, Cathy Williams, Cathy Blanton, Angela Jestes, and Mike Blanton really did a great spread with the help of a lot of food brought in by other members. Dwayne and Chris worked hard all evening to make the Raffle a success. Thanks to all! I guess I've said enough but surely didn't mention everyone that participated and helped make this month successful. Please know that I am very, very appreciative of all you do.

Steve Miller, President

FASA has been challenged for $500 from the other shag clubs for donations to the Phil Sawyers Scholarship.

Contact Steve Dawson, his number is in the FASA Newsletter, about upcoming Shriner's Golf Tournament, May 12, 2006.

FASA's help was enlisted to reciprocate visits to the Harnett County Shag Club. Donnie Davis sold 7 tickets to the Harnett County Shag Club. We were asked to help their club also.

Help ask for in establishing a Beach Music category within the music awards called the Grammy's. With enough interest and enough people joining this association (2,500), they could have a Beach Music Awards with the Grammy's. King Curtis, associated with the Cammy's (Carolina Beach Music Awards) reported: This is the 12th yr. of the Carolina Beach Music Awards. It was previously called the Cammy's. Due to national interest, it had to be changed since the Grammy's claimed it infringed on their copyrights. The Grammy's have a variety of music awards: Pokka, Indian music, all kinds of Blues categories, etc., but they don't have a beach music category. If 2,500 people sign up in the academy, they would give away a beach music Album of the Year and Song of the Year on the Grammy's on TV. plus this allows you to vote the winners of the Cammy's Awards which are held every November at the Alabama Theater. The website is Cammy.org or CarolinaBeachMusicAwards.com. You can vote for: your favorite radio station, favorite D.J., favorite Song of the Year, Best Event of the Year, or Group of the Year, etc., (appx 29 categories). The application can be downloaded from the website.

Steve Miller will keep Shag, The Book until July for signatures. If interested in buying; it is $60.
