From the President

Hi Folks. You know there is nothing better to forget your troubles than a trip to the beach, especially during SOS. The weather couldn't have been better. The clubs had great crowds and lots of workshops were going on. Our club helped sell a crowd of Fun Monday tickets to further the cause. Dwayne Baggett sold the winning ticket to a lucky shagger from Virginia ($ 7000).One of the best parts of SOS was Rose Outlaws "open house" party. FASA had a lot of members attend. It was great seeing everyone and Rose put on a great party. She had everything from delicious food to entertainment. Thank's Rose for the invitation and by the way a beautiful home. FASA members , it is very important to attend our meetings. We need numbers when we vote on important issues so we can get a real picture of what members want. We've had very good turnouts but I would like to see even more members as we begin the process of choosing new officers. If you are interested in running for office please contact Chris Jestes. Your SOS cards will expire Dec. 31st SOS cards for 2007 are available and can be purchased at our Sept. 30th party and up to Jan. 7th if you plan to go to Mid-Winter. Price is $30. See me, or Dwayne Baggett. Don't forget to put your order in for the NC shag tags (see Dwayne). Our next meeting is Oct. 10th. Hope you were able to attend SOS. Keep on shagging and remember , it's all about love.....and the dance.

Steve M.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Steve Miller. He expressed thanks to Denise Rose for providing snacks, to Debbie Inman for teaching line dances, and to the bartender, Lori. He welcomed Ricky Price as our D.J. for the night.

A motion was made and passed to accept the minutes as written. Steve clarified that the treasurer's report does not include the amount in the cd, and the treasurer's report was also accepted.

Old Business:

New members were presented, a motion was made to accept them, and the motion passed. Our new members are Kathleen Kinder, Rhonda and Billy Owen, Faye Allen, Kenneth Smith, and Lucrecia and James Jackson.

Curtiss Carpenter, Mike McGill, and Jimmy Cromartie have applied for membership, and their names will be presented for approval at the October meeting.

Dwight Vinson reported that we now have 230 members.
Fun Monday tickets are still available.

New Business:

A silent auction is being held during the meeting for the shag book. Proceeds will be turned in at the ACSC meeting this weekend.
If you are interested in serving as an officer next year, please contact Chris Jestes.

Alvia Locklear, entertainment chairperson, presented options for the Christmas party.

- 1) We can sell tickets in advance at $20 per person to cover the price of a caterer.
- 2) FASA members can bring covered dishes.

After discussion, a motion was made that the entertainment committee be allowed to make the decision. The motion did not pass.
A motion was made to vote on the three choices for the Christmas party:

- 1) No food will be provided
- 2) The food will be catered and tickets will be sold
- 3) Members will be asked to bring a covered dish.

The members present voted not to have any food for the party.

Rose Outlaw is having an open house at her home in N. Myrtle Beach beginning at 3:00 Sat., Sept. 16th. All FASA members are welcome.

Nancy Strother is making a quilt from shag club shirts. If you have a shirt that you would like to donate, contact her at 843-762-0850. The quilt will be raffled at the Winter Workshop.

The by-laws committee will meet Wed., Sept. 27th, at 7:30 p.m. at Joan Sessom's house.

Carolina Shaggers are having a golf tournament and had asked if FASA would sponsor a hole, but there was no response to the suggestion.

Steve asked that we consider donating to the Hall of Fame Foundation. The motion was made that members have the opportunity to donate to the HOF at the next 3 parties. In December, we will find out how much has been donated and can decide then if additional money should be donated. The motion passed.

The next party will be held Sept. 30th. The October meeting will be held the 10th.
Birthdays were announced.

A motion was made and passed that the meeting be adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Deborah Dixon, Acting Secretary
